

I have had epilepsy since early childhood. I have been fortunate to manage my seizure disorder so as to enable me to enjoy a long professional career as an attorney, advocating for others. I believe that the challenges and stigmas I faced as a person with epilepsy inspired me to become an attorney.

